THE CHURCH OF THE COVENANT WELCOMES all who have come to worship with us. This congregation seeks to be a spiritual home for people from all walks of life, and to be involved in the vital personal and social concerns of our day. Here you will find a diversity of religious opinion, an openness to questions of faith and practice, and a commitment of respect for one another as together we seek to discern God's purposes for our lives. If you are seeking a church home, we invite you to become a member or participant in our family of faith.

OUR VISION

The Church of the Covenant aspires to be a welcoming spiritual home where we are:

- ✎ Challenged to live God's inclusive love,
- ✎ Empowered to express Christ's compassion, and
- ✎ Equipped to do justice within the community and throughout the world.

CONVINCED OF GOD'S GRACE, the Church of the Covenant seeks to be open and affirming, welcoming all people.

- ✎ Units of the Easy Listener system, large-print bulletins, and individual seat cushions are available from the ushers.
- ✎ Please sign the signature book found at the end of your pew.
- ✎ We ask that you please turn off cell phones and pagers; refrain from walking in the aisles during the sermon and prayers or taking pictures during the service; and, if you are double parked, move your car immediately following the service.

Veni Creator Spiritus,
Mentes tuorum visita;
Imple superna gratia
Quæ tu creasti pectora.

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
Vouchsafe within our souls to rest;
Come with Thy grace and heavenly aid
And fill the hearts which Thou hast made.

Qui Paracletus diceris,
Donum Dei altissimi,
Fons vivus, ignis, caritas,
Et spiritalis unctio.

To Thee, the Comforter, we cry,
To Thee, the Gift of God Most High,
The Fount of life, the Fire of love,
The soul's Anointing from above. (continued)

Tu septiformis munere,
Digitus Dei dexteræ,
Tu rite promissum Patris,
Sermone ditans guttura.

The sevenfold gifts of grace are Thine,
O Finger of the Hand Divine;
True promise of the Father Thou,
Who dost the tongue with speech endow.

Accende lumen sensibus,
Infunde amorem cordibus,
Infirma nostri corporis
Virtute firmans perpeti.

Thy light to every thought impart
And shed Thy love in every heart;

With deathless might invigorate.

MAURICE DURUFLÉ

THE MCGAFFIN CARILLON

Following the tradition of many great houses of worship in the United States and Europe, the Church of the Covenant celebrates the role of the pipe organ in its capacity to lead worship through supportive accompaniment and inspiring repertoire. Postludes may on occasion extend longer than the time period some may wish to remain in the sanctuary. If you feel the need to leave early, please do so quietly out of respect for those who wish to remain.

ABOUT OUR SERVICE TODAY

MUSIC NOTES

Our music for Pentecost Sunday comes from multiple traditions. The service begins with the choral prelude Komm Heiliger Geist (Come Holy Spirit) as set by the North German Baroque composer Dietrich Buxtehude (c.1643-1707). Published in 1524, the chorale's text was written by Martin Luther and set to an adaptation of the Gregorian chant Veni Sancte Spiritus. For the introit, the choir sings the 9th century Gregorian chant Veni Creator Spiritus accompanied by handbells. Herbert Howells set the anthem My Eyes for Beauty Pine to a text by Robert Bridges in 1928. Its poignant text reminds us that the "celestial fire" of Pentecost is rooted in "heavenly Love." Two works by the 20th century French composer Maurice Duruflé emphasize the peace and tranquility of the Spirit: his motet Ubi caritas and Scherzo, Op. 2 for organ. The choir concludes the 2013-2014 choral season with Peter Lutkin's famous benediction, The Lord Bless You and Keep You. We thank all of our dedicated singers for another wonderful year of music and worship.

OUR LAY WORSHIP LEADER TODAY is Orene Anthony who joined the Covenant community in 2000. Along with Mallory, Orene has participated in the Race for the Cure walk-a-thon, served as a Deacon and became an EfM grad. Currently she is a member of the Black History Committee, assists with Sunday School, and serves as a Lay Worship Leader. Her interests include exploring ways that not only appreciate but also celebrate our differences. Lay Worship Leaders write their prayers. If you would like to become a lay worship leader, please contact Gale Bromelmeier at 440-944-7480 or at galebrom@aol.com.

CELEBRATING OUR CONFIRMANDS

Today we celebrate with our Confirmation Class the end of a journey they spent together for ten months! They made the commitment to meet monthly with our pastors as well as with their mentors to explore their faith and learn about what it means to become a Presbyterian. At the May Session meeting they shared their impressive Statements of Faith and were accepted into the membership of the Church of the Covenant. Today we confirm and commission them and welcome them into the membership of our church. So presenting to you our Confirmands and their Mentors!

SOS: SUMMER OF STORIES continues today for children and youth from 10:15 until 11 am in the Living Room. Today Carol Roe will share her story with them.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (USA) OBSERVES OPEN COMMUNION. All who confess their faith in Jesus Christ as Sovereign and Savior, and their children, are invited to partake. You are encouraged to use the time while the elements are being served for prayer and meditation. Please partake of the bread whenever it is appropriate for you; hold the cup so that we may partake together, symbolizing our unity in Christ. To symbolize our calling to minister to one another, as you pass the tray of cups to the person seated beside you, please say, May the Spirit of God be with you. As you are served, please respond, And with you also. The wine of communion is unfermented grape juice.

ELDERS AND DEACONS SERVING COMMUNION TODAY are Erin Baker, Kathy Farkas, Theodis Fipps, Matthew Garrett, Kitty Jarjisian, Jim Mate, Ron Neill, Gene Papp, Jules Tryk, and Ann Williams.

THE FLOWERS IN THE CHANCEL URN are given to the glory of God and in memory of Marvin Dress, whose birthday is June 9, by his son Henry Dress.

USHERS TODAY are John Bromelmeier, Karen Burt, Martha Goble, Keith Kallay, and Suchi Nelson. Greeters are Stephanie and David Finkenthal.

BELIEVING GOD CALLS US TO BE PEACEMAKERS, by Session action, we include in the Prayer of Thanksgiving, Intercession and Petition, once each month, specific concern for people affected by gun violence and addressing the evil of gun violence in our nation, marked by the tolling of the tower bell.

THE 2014 PEACEMAKING OFFERING IS RECEIVED IN WORSHIP TODAY. The Peacemaking Offering gives us a concrete way of living and working in response to Christ's call to be peacemakers. Seventy-five percent of the offering funds the Peacemaking Program of our denomination, enabling us to bring International Peacemakers, share conferences and advocate for active non-violent solutions to conflicts, and equipping all Presbyterians to bear witness to ways we can live out our faith in the midst of the challenge of violence.

The Outreach and Social Justice Committee has designated our portion of the 2014 Peacemaking Offering as a gift to the Grafton Community Service Program that provides opportunities for the inmates at the Grafton Reintegration Center to serve the larger community. The creation of teddy bears for Ohio Cops for Kids is one project the Covenant congregation has facilitated. Ohio Cops for Kids provides the teddy bears to police, firefighters and other first responders to give to children who have been involved in traumatic incidents. The teddy bears scattered in the sanctuary pews will be shared with children through Ohio Cops for Kids. Giving a Statement of Opportunity this morning is Jim Tomaszewski, a member of the Outreach and Social Justice Committee. An offering envelope is inserted in the bulletin for your use.

STEPHEN MINISTERS are church members trained to support individuals who are facing difficulties and would like a caring Christian presence during this struggle. If you would like someone to pray or talk with, you are invited to visit with a Stephen Minister in Christ Chapel following worship today.

MIDWEEK MUSIC & MEDITATION, WEDNESDAYS, 4:30–5 PM

Midweek Music & Meditation is a service for anyone who would find comfort in a time of reflection, music, and prayer. Prayer requests placed in The Carpenter's Box on the Christ Chapel table are included in the time of prayer.

HELP IDENTIFY OUR ASSOCIATE PASTOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE!

Complete the nominating form in today's bulletin and place in the offering plate, in the church office, or email Covenant@CovenantWeb.org

We are on the cusp of an exciting time at Church of the Covenant. We are in the process of forming an Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (APNC) to begin the process of seeking a new associate pastor. We have been cleared by the Presbytery's Committee on Ministry, and Session has affirmed the election of the APNC and for a new job description to find an Associate Pastor with a new calling. The nominating committee is looking forward to hearing from and about people who can contribute the time, energy and vision to make this search successful. This APNC will help shape the Covenant for years to come. Please consider nominating someone you think would be up to this task – perhaps yourself?
